Ickwell Green is a charming little village about 8 miles from Bedford and 3½ miles from Biggleswade. In the village is Ickwell Bury, a red-brick building in the Queen Anne style which stands on a small hill commanding a splendid view. Just outside the park gates, in the centre of a green, is found one of the few remaining old English maypoles, which even in these present go-ahead days has not fallen into desuetude.
